Meet the Author: Jerdine Nolan

Author Jerdine Nolan discusses her latest book, On Her Wings, which is a non-fiction picture book about the early life and legacy of groundbreaking American writer Toni Morrison. Born in February 1931 in a working-class town in rural Ohio, Toni was the only African American writer and one of the few women to have received the Nobel prize for literature. She made her debut as a novelist in 1970 with The Bluest Eye and soon gained the attention of both critics and a wider audience for her epic power, unerring ear for dialogue, and her poetically-charged and richly expressive depictions of Black America. In this interview Ms. Nolen also talks about her other award winning books including Big Jabe; Thunder Rose, a Coretta Scott King Illustrator Honor Book; Freedom Bird, Calico Girl and Irene’s Wish.
