1. Southwest Traffic Calming

Introduction of the Southwest Traffic Calming efforts by staff and consultants, followed by a discussion of proposals and next steps.

Speakers: Ken Goldman, Milton Hyman, David Suber, Margie Blatt, Sybil Goldrich, Mel Legget, David Gordon, Myra Porter, Dr. Sharon Ignarro, Darlene Schlossberg, Joseph Gabbaian, David Gingold, Sheri Hirschfeld, Valerie Wisot

Deputy Director of Transportation Aaron Kunz and Fehr & Peers Consultants Steve Brown and Mike Samuelson presented background information and a report for potential neighborhood traffic calming tools for the Southwest area of the City. Transportation Planner Jessie Holzer gave a brief presentation on traffic mitigation in relation to the Metro Purple Line Extension. Fehr & Peers and City staff have met with Southwest Homeowners Association representatives to provide information on a variety of traffic calming options.

Southwest Homeowners Association President Ken Goldman also presented a trial proposal requesting traffic circles along Charleville Boulevard and Gregory Way and peak-hour turn restrictions.

The Commission agreed the next step is to conduct outreach in order to gauge resident interest. Staff will provide a draft survey for Commission review.
