Police Sergeant Promotions

Sergeant Myers

Sergeant Fair

The Beverly Hills Police Department is pleased to announce the promotions of two new sergeants.

Andrew Myers was promoted to Sergeant on July 22, 2017. Sergeant Myers started his career with Beverly Hills PD in 2002 after transferring from the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Department where he served three years as a deputy sheriff. Sergeant Myers holds a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice.

Billy Fair was promoted to Sergeant on October 14, 2017. Sergeant Fair started his career with Beverly Hills PD in 2013 after transferring from the Costa Mesa Police Department where he served ten years as a police officer. Sergeant Fair holds a Bachelor's Degree in Criminal Justice and a Master's Degree Liberal Studies.

Sergeants Myers and Fair's promotions were celebrated at the Department's recent promotional ceremony on October 16, 2017.
